

DONOR PRIVACY POLICY

Special Olympics Minnesota, Inc. (“SOMN”) will not sell, share or trade our donors' names or personal information with any other entity, nor send mailings to our donors on behalf of other organizations.

This policy applies to all information received by SOMN including but not limited to information received in any hard copy format; submitted through any electronic means such as through a website, via email or by facsimile transmission; or as communicated verbally to any representative of SOMN. To the extent any donations are processed through a third-party service provider, donor information will only be used for purposes necessary to process the donation.

All gifts will be used in accordance with donor intent. Donor information will be provided in response to external requests only if permission is obtained from the donor, or if information is subject to legally authorized and enforceable requests by government agencies or courts. Donor requests for privacy, anonymity or confidentiality will be honored.

SOMN is a not-for-profit corporation in the State of Minnesota organized under IRS regulation 501(c)(3) and accredited by Special Olympics International (“SOI”). This policy shall not be interpreted to apply to SOI nor any other authorized and accredited Special Olympics Program other than SOMN. For information regarding SOI, please visit www.specialolympics.org.
